

I rely on XM radio for important information affecting my area. I think it is a clear contradiction of the Constitution to restrict commerce and prevent XM from offering this service. The drive is clearly from large broadcasters who want a choke hold on this information so that they can drive their own profit.